A: Auction
Get colleagues involved in holding a fundraising auction! You can donate a percentage (or all) of the funds raised from selling anything that you no longer need or want. These can be physical items or you can auction off promises - such as making coffee for the whole team for a week.

B: Bake off
Use the lunch hour to hold a stand and sell tasty baked goods that your colleagues have made. Want to make it festive? Make mince pies, gingerbread or a Christmas cake to give your fundraiser a festive spin.

C: Card games evening
A card games night could be a fun and exciting way to bring in some extra money.

D: Dress down day
Pick a date and let your colleagues know that you're holding a dress down day for charity and they can wear casual clothes. Want to be extra comfy? Why not wear a onesie to work.

E: Endurance Challenge
Who can do 1000 squats? Who can hold the plank the longest? Take bets and get your heartbeats raising.

F: Film Night
Had a hard day at work? Pick a film and gather your colleagues together for an evening of movies to wind down. Ask for donations to take part.

G: Guinness World Record
Do you have what it takes to break a world record? Get colleagues to donate for the chance to witness you making history.

H: Hair be gone!
Leg wax? Head shave? How crazy will you and your colleagues go to raise funds for Sculpt?

I: International night
Give your fundraising a global theme – pick your favourite country or culture and hold a fundraising event based around that with music, food, quizzes and dancing. Ask for a donation to attend.

J: Job swap
Arrange a day where everyone in your team swaps jobs with a colleague. Sponsor your manager to take over reception for the day?

K: Kick a habit
Challenge yourself to break a bad habit while raising money.

L: Last hour's pay
Donate your last hour's pay each month and encourage others to follow your example. Maybe even ask your employer to match your donation.

M: Matched giving
Ask your employer to match the cash you raise through your fundraising activities.

N: Name the...
Use a teddy bear or cuddly toy and ask for donations to guess its name. Think about your colleague's interests and ages before choosing your item.

O: Office Olympics
Feeling energetic and up for a challenge? Take on speed typing, pencil tossing or mental gymnastics. Hold the office Olympics for the day and work hard to clinch the title of champion.

P: Payroll giving
Do you know if your company offers Payroll Giving?

Q: Quiet hour
Challenge people to stay quiet for an hour, donate for every noise.

R: Run
Test out your endurance by challenging yourself to do a sponsored charity run. Get your colleagues together and put on those running shoes.

S: Swear box
£1 for every swear word uttered. See how much you can collect in a month.

T: Tuck Shop
Make the most of your office tea breaks and run a tuck shop at work, with the proceeds coming to Sculpt.

U: Unwanted gift swap
After Christmas, we all have a few unwanted gifts that we don't quite know what to do with. Why not hold an office gift exchange event where people can swap or sell unwanted gifts. Everyone can pay £1 to pick a new present.

V: Valued customers
If you regularly ask for customer feedback, get customers involved in fundraising by suggesting your company makes a donation for every customer survey returned.

W: Window cleaning
Offer to clean your office windows for a donation from your company.

X: X-Factor
Bring the X-Factor to your workplace. Hold a talent show and show off your party piece!

Y: Yogathon
Clear a space in the office and embark on a yoga challenge.

Z: Zero waste day
Challenge your colleagues to go zero waste for the entire week. Ask for donations or sponsorships.
